SPECIFIC TO RIDDEN CLASSES

32. PROTECTIVE HEADGEAR Correctly secured British Standard skull caps/ riding hats that meet with current BSI or European safety standards must be worn by riders 18 years and under. A rider who's hat comes off will be disqualified with the exemption of bowlers, hunting caps and top hats where permitted, when it must be passed up from the ground. A rider, who's strap comes undone whilst competing must on penalty of disqualification, replace it or fasten it before continuing. The rider may stop without penalty to refasten the strap.

33. A Novice horse is one that has not been placed first in three ridden classes at novice or open level at affiliated shows prior to 1 January of the current season and/or has never qualified for THE HORSE OF THE YEAR SHOW . Horses that have been ridden in open classes abroad are not eligible to enter pre-novice and novice classes in the UK.

33.1 Pre-novice

Four year olds to wear ordinary snaffle bridle and bit (as BD Rules). A Pre Novice horse is one that has not been placed first more than twice at an affiliated show. Horses entered in Pre Novice classes may not enter Open classes at the same show. Pre Novice classes are not qualifiers for any championships.

34. Spurs must not be worn in Novice or Pre Novice classes.

35. Whips used in Ridden classes must not exceed 75cms (30ins). Side saddle excepted.

36. If competing in THE HORSE OF THE YEAR SHOW qualifying classes only shoes that do not cover the frog are permissible. Normal shaped open heeled plastic stick on shoes are permissible. No bar shoes, pads or gel pads are allowed.

40. RIDDEN CLASSES. The class as a whole should be ridden and not judged solely from the ground; the exception being any pony 148cm and under which must NOT be ridden but must be asked for an individual show. In a mixed height class this exception must be communicated to all the exhibitors so that they clearly understand the position from the outset of the class. Individual shows will be required in Championships. Where a show meets the criteria for the Small Shows Scheme and appoints an In Hand Judge for ridden classes none of the exhibits will be ridden. At BACS all exhibits may be ridden by an appropriate size judge.

41. JUNIOR RIDER CLASSES. restricted to riders who are 18 years and under on the first day of the show. No spurs allowed. No stallions allowed. The judge will not ride any of the exhibits. It is at the Judge's discretion as to whether he/she feels fit to continue judging. If the Judge does not feel fit to continue a replacement Ridden Judge may be found. If this is not possible an In Hand Judge may judge from the ground in which case the exhibits will be asked to do an individual show. The Show Organiser has the right to over-ride the Judge's decision should he/she consider that the Judge is not fit to continue.

44. If a rider removes a horse from the ring without the permission of the judge or steward the show organiser will levy a £100 fine on the rider. The exhibitor will be ultimately responsible for ensuring payment. Exceptions may be made if the horse is seen to be unsafe and the rider is unable to attract the attention of the Steward.

Rules for Conduct of Shows

1. By participating at a show, show organisers, judges, exhibitors, owners and handlers agree that they will unconditionally submit themselves and the persons assisting and accompanying them to the "Rules for Conduct of Shows" and, as regards veterinary matters and drug misuse, to the relevant ECAHO Veterinary Regulations and ECAHO Rules for Medication Control. The accompanying persons include e.g. trainers or persons representing the show organizer as well as assistants of any of those persons. They will accept the jurisdiction of the Disciplinary Committee (DC), the Standing Disciplinary Committee (SDC) and the ECAHO Appeals Committee (EAC).

The person responsible for the horse is the registered owner or the lessee, but the person who signs the entry form, the handler, and other support personnel including but not limited to grooms and veterinarians may be regarded as additional persons responsible if they are present at the event or have made a relevant decision about the horse. Should the person responsible designate someone to represent them (e.g. a lawyer) any correspondence sent to this representative will be deemed to have been communicated to the person responsible.

These Rules will be interpreted when necessary under the provisions of the laws of Switzerland.

Show organisers are not permitted to introduce rules which are in conflict with the EAHSC "Rules for Conduct of Shows".

2. Horses must be accompanied at the show by a horse passport containing all vaccination records. Those horses coming from a country that does not issue a passport, must be accompanied by an official Registration document which includes a graphic description and all vaccination records. If, when a horse attends a show, its passport is at the Registry for any reason, then a letter from the registrar attesting to this must be provided along with a photo-copy of the passport, including the description and the vaccination records.

The show organizer

The name of every horse must be printed in the show catalogue, as well as the names of sire and dam, (and maternal grandsire if possible), date of birth, colour, the names of the breeder and the owner. Should a horse's name not be mentioned in the catalogue, its participation at the show will be allowed only if the exhibitor cannot be blamed for the omission; it will be for the DC to decide.

The show catalogue shall furthermore contain:

- The names of all the Officials,
- The Rules for Conduct of Shows,
- The judging system used, the rules for ties and the rules for championships, rules for foal classes (where applicable)
- For Shows where prize money is awarded the total amount and distribution of the prize money.

6. a) No announcement indicating the identity, breeding or past performance of exhibits, or the identity of their owners will be made during judging. It is, however, permissible for this information to be given out after the judges score sheets have been collected for each exhibit.

b) Show organisers will not release details of competitors or their exhibits to the press at any time prior to the catalogue being put on sale at the showground. Catalogues will not be offered for sale, published or posted on internet more than one day before the commencement of the show.

7. a) No member of the show organising team may judge, or officiate as member of the Disciplinary Committee.

b) If an ECAHO Official or a member of their family is a part of the Organizing Committee of an independent A or Title show, which is not organized by the National Association of the country where the show is held, then that Official cannot officiate at any other A or Title shows.

c) Members of the Organizing Committees of A and Title shows may not enter their own horses in a Show which they organize.

Rules for Conduct of Shows

9. The show organiser will provide appropriate transport, accommodation and meals during the show, for the judges, DC members, ring master and any other ECAHO show officials. If a judge, DC member or ring master cancels the invitation after the travel arrangements have been made, he will pay all the costs arising out of this booking.

10. The following daily fees are mandatory and to be paid by the organizer to judges, DC members and ring masters per working day regardless of the actual hours: B International and C International shows: € 100,- / A shows: € 150,- / Title shows: € 200,-.

For all other shows a daily fee is optional and at the discretion of the show-organization. Material gifts are always allowed, regardless of the category of the show.

Judges, DC Members, Ringmasters and respective probationers, hereafter referred to as 'Official(s)'

11. Officials invited to officiate at ECAHO affiliated shows agree to do so with integrity and honesty and to carry out their duties solely with the objects of ECAHO and the welfare of the horses in mind.

12. a) Officials appointed at a show will not knowingly officiate in a class in which horses are entered concerning which there may be an actual or apparent conflict of interest. No official appointed at the show may exhibit, ride, drive or handle an entered horse or pursue any other activity not consistent with his duties at the show in which he is officiating.

b) Exhibitors will declare on the entry form any actual or apparent conflict of interest with any of the officials invited for the show. Any exhibitor not declaring an existing conflict of interest, of which he is aware, will forfeit all entry fees and will be prevented from showing the horse.

- Is being trained or handled by a member of the official's family
- has been bought or sold by an official either as owner or agent
- has been bred or is owned in whole or part by the official or by a member of the official's family, or business partner in an Arab horse business venture
- has been leased by the official, at any time
- has been bred by or is the property of a breeding organization in which the official is or was an employee
- has been regularly trained, examined or treated by the official in a professional capacity
- is the subject of an on-going negotiation to buy or lease, or a provisional purchase condition to which the official is a party.

An actual or apparent conflict of interest may further occur, amongst others, if the Official, irrespective of the payment or receipt of a remuneration or any other consideration, during the period of one year (365 days) before a show at which the Official officiates:

- has entered into any business relationship with an exhibitor at that show,
- Has received, whilst being involved with the organization of any show or event, sponsorship from an exhibitor at that show or event.

This does not apply to those events organized on behalf of a National Association which is a Full Member of ECAHO, as long as the Official has no financial benefit from the sponsorship.

- has performed consulting for an exhibitor at that show,
- has purchased or sold a horse from or to an exhibitor at that show,
- was involved with the breeding of a horse of an exhibitor at that show,
- was involved in similar activities with an exhibitor at that show.

Rules for Conduct of Shows

- ii) if the official with the conflict of interests is a DC member, this DC member is not allowed to issue any yellow or red cards for the duration of the class and respective championship, but may continue all other duties
- iii) if the official with the conflict of interests is a Ringmaster, this Ringmaster may be replaced for the duration of the conflict by:
 - a reserve Ringmaster
 - a member of the acting DC

15. In the show ring, all communication between judges and handlers prior to the presentation of prizes will be through the Ringmaster.

16. Judges may withhold any award if in their opinion the exhibit does not merit such an award.

Aljassimya Amateur Challenge Rules & Regulations for 2018

Introduction:

The main reason for these R&R are to unify the method of judging, conduct and scoring system in Amateur Shows in Europe. These R&R shall benefit organizers, judges, exhibitors and spectators, as well as the horses themselves. Compared to most Halter Classes within Arabian Horse Shows, there will be more emphasize on the technical presentation of the handler and the relationship between handler and horse. These additional topics will also be taken into the account for the total scores of the combination.

After the 2017 show season, a general review of the R&R has been made, based on the feedback and experiences of participants, judges and organizers.

Conditions of Entry for the Horses:

- Open to Arabian Purebred Horses registered in any WAHO recognized studbook by the closing date of entries.
- Open to Anglo-Arabs and Arabian Part bred Horses, registered in any official studbook. A minimum of 25% of Arabian Blood needs to be proven by the certificate of registration.
- No foal classes shall be organized.

Entry Restrictions for Horses:

Entry restrictions only apply to ECAHO-qualifying classes. Liberty, Costume Classes, Junior Handler, etc... are non-qualifying classes for the moment.

Participation in the Novice Classes is not permitted if the horse:

- Levels referred below are according to the Pyramid of ECAHO affiliated shows, as per Blue Book 2018.
- Has been awarded as a Classwinner, Gold, Silver or Bronze Title in, at least, an ECAHO National C-show, or higher level, on or before the date of the closure of the entries of the actual show, and in 2016, 2017 or 2018, unless the horse has passed from a junior to a senior category.
- Has been awarded a Gold, Silver or Bronze Title in, at least, an ECAHO Int. B-show or equivalent (1) level ever.
- If the horse has passed from Novice to Amateur/Experience Amateur as defined in the ranking system below. See "Level determination".
- Horses that have been shown by a professional handler in the current year, on or before the day of the show.

Participation in the Amateur Classes is not permitted if the horse:

- Has been awarded as a Classwinner, Gold, Silver or Bronze Title in, at least, an ECAHO International B-show, or higher level, on or before the date of the closure of the entries of the actual show, and in 2016, 2017 or 2018, unless the horse has passed from a junior to a senior category.
- Has been awarded a Gold, Silver or Bronze Title in, at least, an ECAHO A or Title-show, or equivalent (1) ever.
- If the horse has passed from Amateur to Experienced Amateur as defined in the ranking system below. See "Level determination".
- Horses not eligible to participate in Novice or Amateur Classes can be shown in the Experienced Amateur Classes, except those that have been awarded as a Classwinner, Gold, Silver or Bronze Title in a Int. A-Show or Title show in 2016, 2017 or 2018, unless the horse has passed from a junior to a senior category.

In case these horses have gathered such victories prior to 2016, they can participate in Experience Amateur Classes.

Entry Restrictions for Handlers:

- Novice classes are open for Novice handlers. Novice means in this case non-professional inexperienced handlers who have never achieved a victory in a class at an ECAHO C-National show or higher.
- Owners having an ECAHO handlers-permit and who only have shown their own horses can participate in Amateur classes.
- Amateur handlers are non-professional handlers with some show experience, which have not shown horses against payment for a third party. Non-professional handlers which have won titles in an ECAHO C-National or C-Int. show shall be considered Amateur handlers.
- Amateur Classes are open to all non-professional handlers who passed from Novice to Amateur as defined in the ranking system below. See "Level determination".
- Non-professional handlers obtaining a Classwinner or Medal, in Shows above C-International level are considered experienced and excluded from participation in Amateur classes.
- The Experienced Amateur Class is open for novice/amateur handlers to show. Novice/amateur handlers who have gained qualifying points as defined in the ranking system below will have to move up to experienced amateur-level. See "Level determination".
- No handler shall have been paid in any way for showing, training or producing any horse for a third party.

This covers only persons which are paid for training and preparing horses. (If a person on the farm is paid mainly for cleaning the stable and teaches the horse the show-stand in his free time, then he is considered amateur handler. - "Producing" does not mean "breeding" in this sentence. "Producing" means something like "keeping, taking care of, training etc. It means people who take money for stabling and training horses for shows, competitions etc. Breeding (and selling the foals time to time) is not meant by this point. If the breeder breeds on his mare just to sell the foal, it would be described as "breeding and selling" but not producing.

Handlers keep their qualification level and their points will qualify for the following show seasons.

Aljassimya Amateur Challenge

The total amount of points will be announced @700 and will NOT be recalculated to points @ 100

In Novice and Amateur classes, horses will enter the arena in walk during the group judgement. Thereafter they enter the arena in walk and line-up their horses in front of the judges and according to the RM’s instructions.

Rules for ties in Classes & Championships:

In the event of a tie in the ranking of horses in a Halter Class or Best in Show, the higher ranking will go to the combination with the highest points for harmony. If there is still a tie , the higher place will be given to the horse with the highest points for type.

Failing a decision on either these, the preference of the “Call judge” (appointed by ballot) will be the tie-breaker.

The title of “Best Novice” will be selected amongst the Class winners of each Novice Class.

The title of “Best Amateur” will be selected amongst the Class winners of each Amateur Class.

The title of “Best Experienced Amateur” will be selected amongst the Class winners of each Experienced Amateur Class.

Points will be given to the nominated horses as follows:

- A horse nominated by a judge for Best in Show will receive 4 points
- A horse nominated by a judge for 1st runner up will receive 2 points
- A horse nominated by a judge for 2nd runner up will receive 1 point

In the case of a tie, the Rules for Ties in championships will be followed.

The judges will not discuss the horses.

In case of a handler qualifying with multiple horses for the Best in Show Title, the handler will have to choose one horse to show. His or her other horses, that made it to the BIS competition, will have to be shown by another handler from the same level or lower level. In case of “not shown in BIS” the handler loses his points gathered for this combination in the classes. Failing to find a suitable handler, it is compulsory to contact the DC, OC and the representative of AJF to find a solution, in order not to lose the awarded points. Only this procedure will assure the handler or the horse will not lose points due to disqualification.

Rules & Regulations for 2018 continue

Level determination

The level of the handler will be determined by the AJF Amateur Challenge Committee before the start of the show season. In case a handler joins in later in the season, his/her level will be determined before the first participation. Handlers need to register through <http://www.aljassimya-amateur-challenge.eu>

A "Tool" will be available on this website to determine one's individual level. In case of doubt, a handler shall submit his "handlers' experience and results" to the Committee, in order for them to determine the level. In case of discussion, final decision will be made by this board.

Points are given according to the ranking of the individual class and are gathered by both the horse AND the handler, but not necessarily as a combination. For example: Novice handlers showing multiple horses can move up to Amateur level, while their horses stay in novice level.

Points for horses and handlers will be rewarded according to the graphic below:

1 st place:	20 points
2 nd place:	15 points
3 rd place:	10 points
4 th place:	8 points
5 th place:	6 points
6 th place:	4 points
7 th place:	3 points
8 th place:	2 points
9 th place and lower:	1 point

Additional 5 points will be awarded for the combination "Best in Show Novice".

Additional 5 points will be awarded for the combination "Best in Show Amateur".

At the end of the show season, the total amount of points earned by the handler will determine the level of the next show season.

Handlers who have gained 80 points or more will move up one level.

Handlers who have gained 160 points or more will move up to Experienced Amateur Level.

Horses that haven't been shown in Amateur Shows for two executive years can drop one level, although they still need to apply to all rules for their level determination.

Handlers that did not show horses in Amateur Shows for two executive years are allowed to drop one level. Not compulsory.

Handlers that won any class in their career in Amateur or Experienced Level can never go back to Novice level. Unless otherwise instructed in writing by the AJF Committee.

In case of discussions on the level of the horses/handlers: the valuta date of the payment confirmation (date of transfer of entry fee on the account of the organizing committee) after entry registration for the show is determent for the level of that show season.

All Show Organizers will forward the results, including the names of the handlers as well as the information on the horse, to the AJF Challenge vzw, within 1 week after the closing of the show, who publishes an up-to-date record of the horses/handlers in each level.

General Rules of the Shows:

Officials and rules

1.The entry form, together with the show schedule is a contract between the show organizer and the person who signs the entry form. That person will be held responsible for the horse in case any sanctions are imposed.

By participating at a show, show organizers, judges, exhibitors, owners and handlers agree that they will unconditionally submit themselves and the persons assisting and accompanying them to the "Rules for Conduct of Shows" and, as regards veterinary matters and drug misuse, to the relevant ECAHO Veterinary Regulations and ECAHO Rules for Medication Control. The accompanying persons include e.g. trainers or persons representing the show organizer as well as assistants of any of those persons. They will accept the jurisdiction of the Disciplinary Committee (DC), the Standing Disciplinary Committee (SDC) and the ECAHO Appeals Committee (EAC).

The registered owner or current lessee of the horse will be primarily regarded as the person responsible and liable for the horse with regard to the jurisdiction of ECAHO.

These Rules will be interpreted when necessary under the provisions of the laws of Switzerland.

Show organizers are not permitted to introduce rules which are in conflict with the EAHSC "Rules for Conduct of Shows".

2. Horses must be accompanied at the show by a horse passport containing all vaccination records.

Those horses coming from a country that does not issue a passport, must be accompanied by an official Registration document which includes a graphic description and all vaccination records. If, when a horse attends a show, it's passport is at the Registry for any reason, then a letter from the registrar attesting to this must be provided along with a photo-copy of the passport, including the description and the vaccination records.

Exhibitors will declare on the entry form any actual or apparent conflict of interest with any of the judges invited for the show. Any exhibitor not declaring an existing conflict of interest will lose all entry fees and will be prevented from showing the horse.

Organizers will not accept any entries for which any actual or apparent conflict of interest with one of the appointed judges has been indicated, unless a reserve judge is available.

An actual or apparent conflict of interest may occur if a horse is judged that:

- is being trained or handled by a member of the judge's family
- has been bought or sold by the judge either as owner or agent,
- is owned in whole or part by the judge or by a member of the judge's family, or business partner in an Arab horse business venture,
- has been leased by the judge, at any time

- has been bred by the judge or is the property of a breeding organization in which the judge is or was an employee,
- has been regularly trained, examined or treated by the judge in a professional capacity,
- is the subject of an on-going negotiation to buy or lease, or a provisional purchase condition to which the judge is a party.

In case of doubt, the DC's decision will prevail.

Any judge may decline to judge any horse if they consider themselves to have a conflict of interests concerning that horse.

In the show ring, all communication between judges and handlers prior to the presentation of prizes will be through the ring master.

Aljassimya Amateur Challenge Rules & Regulations for 2018 continue

Handlers will be neatly dressed. They may wear any costume normally worn in their country of origin. Handlers will not wear clothes carrying any form of advertising which discloses the connection of the horse they are handling.

- The judge(s) may request that the ringmaster order unruly horses to be withdrawn.
- The judge(s) may request that the ringmaster ask a handler to open a horse's mouth or pick up its feet for inspection.
- Exhibits are to be judged standing, walking and trotting. Handlers who do not comply with the ring master's instructions regarding the above may be given a Yellow/Red card by the ring master.
- Horses will appear in the collecting ring no less than 10 minutes before the start of the class.
- Exhibits that appear late (missing the walk around the ring) will be excluded from the class.
- Stallions and colts aged three years and over may be shown wearing bridles and bits that are both secure and comfortable for the horse. All bridles without bits are equally to be both secure and comfortable for the horse. Any horse that is not under control will be removed from the show ring and disqualified.

Soundness

Exhibits that appear to be lame may be assessed and placed by the judges. Judges may exclude any horse so lame that assessment will inflict pain.

Disguising of Exhibits

No alteration of the basic color of the skin, coat or hooves is permitted. Hoof paints, colorless varnishes, coat dyes, glitter spray and cosmetic operations including skin grafts are forbidden. Colorless hoof oils, Vaseline or oil and white chalk used on white legs will be accepted. Artificial methods of dilating the eyes or affecting the natural action of the horse or otherwise influencing its action or behavior by oxygenating the bloodstream or by the use of weights or artificially weighted shoes, or by electrical or chemical treatment of any kind at any time before or during exhibition are forbidden.

Burns, cuts or other marks on the body of any exhibit in such places or positions as to indicate that prohibited methods have been used will be regarded as full and adequate grounds for exclusion of any exhibit from competition, at the discretion of the DC with veterinary advice.

a) In halter classes horses may be fully or partly body-clipped, subject to eyelashes being left uncut, hair inside the ears left unshaved and tactile hair left intact around the nose, muzzle and the eyes. Horses not fulfilling these criteria will not be allowed to participate. "Balding" is not encouraged.

b) No equipment intended to alter the natural appearance of the horse is permitted in the stables, including neck sweats, neck collars, tail racks, hobbles or weights. Anyone using such equipment on the showground may be suspended by the DC for the period of the show.

Cruelty

Excessive whipping or shanking, excessive stimulation by noise, excessive circling of the horse, intimidation, use of electric shock devices and infliction of pain by any means are forbidden in all parts of the showground or stable areas, at all times. The above actions will be sanctioned.

Advanced Pleasure Classes are open to all riders and horses, no matter the level, but they are not part of the AJF Challenge.

The Crabbet Organisation Showing Rules 2018

In-Hand Showing Rules

- For all types of classes run under these rules your horse needs to be registered with The Arab Horse Society.
- For Crabbet classes your horse must be pure bred Arabian and have 75% or over Crabbet and/or Old English bloodlines.
- For Crabbet related classes your horse must be pure bred Arabian and have one parent with 75% or over Crabbet and/or Old English bloodlines.
- For Crabbet part bred and Anglo Arab classes your horse must have one parent with 75% or over Crabbet and/or Old English bloodlines.
- Crabbet related, part bred and Anglo Arab classes must be run separately from Crabbet classes.
- Competitors need to obtain a letter to ascertain that their Arabian has the required bloodlines to enter classes run under these rules. The Crabbet Organisation issues these letters. Please allow at least 6 weeks from ordering to the date needed. This service is free to members and £10 for each letter to non-members. Please email Mandy Thomas crabbetletters@gmail.com with the full registered name of your horse, full name of sire and dam and your name, address and contact details. A copy of this letter needs to be sent with your class entry or shown to the show secretary if entered on the day of the show. If you have a Heritage Certificate issued by The Crabbet Organisation a copy of this is also acceptable. If horses are eligible for special awards for Arabians of 100% Old English or Crabbet Stud Bloodlines, this will be stated in the letter.
- Exhibits should enter the ring at a walk and in a manner that does not disturb the other exhibits and proceed around the ring in walk until given further instructions by the ring steward. Outside assistance and attempting to influence the behaviour of exhibits in the ring is strictly forbidden.
- All horses forward MUST be shown in a natural manner. The pose must be natural, i.e. one fore leg slightly behind the other and one hind leg slightly behind the other. The head should be held with the neck showing natural arch and curve of throat line, so that the neck is not uncomfortably stretched or raised. The horse should be trained to stand sensibly in this position with expression of interest in the handler. A frozen pose is unacceptable.
- Any unnatural posing, flicking with a whip or circling when being run out, will result, at the Judge's discretion, in the horse being judged as though no presentation or display had been possible and therefore penalized accordingly.
- We recommend that judges of our classes penalise uncontrolled or bad behaviour by the horse as temperament and trainability is essential in a performance breed. Any horse behaving in a dangerous manner which could threaten the safety of other competitors or spectators may be asked to leave the ring at the judge's discretion. Horses asked to leave the ring will be disqualified.
- Whips must be no more than the length of a cane i.e. 65 cm. Halters can be traditional or modern as long as they are comfortable for the horse.
- Handlers dress must be neat and tidy, traditional or modern showing clothing is acceptable.

Rules for The Crabbet Organisation National Championships

- The in-hand showing rules 1-12 apply to The Crabbet Organisation National Championships.
- These Championships do not have classes for Crabbet Related, part bred or Anglo Arab horses.
- If your Crabbet Arabian is not a yearling in the year of the Championships you will need to qualify your Arabian at one of our regional Crabbet Organisation qualification classes to be eligible to enter. A list of these qualifying classes can be found on our web site at www.crabbetarabian.org. Exhibitors entering qualification classes do not need to be members of The Crabbet Organisation.
- Crabbet Arabians coming first or second place will qualify for the Championships. If the first or second placed Arabian is already qualified the qualification place can move down the line at the discretion of the judge. If the judge considers that the Crabbet Arabian does not meet a suitable standard the qualification place can be withheld. Qualification lasts for the lifetime of the horse, so all horses that have previously qualified and horses who attended any of the UK Crabbet Conventions are eligible to enter the Championships.
- Yearling Crabbet Arabians may enter The Crabbet Organisation National Championships without having to qualify at regional shows. You will need a Crabbet letter for your yearling.
- Lifetime qualification will be awarded to the highest placed yearling in the "Crabbet Young Stock Class" at The Crabbet Championships. If there are 5 or more yearlings entered the second highest placed yearling will also be awarded a lifetime qualification.
- Yearlings not awarded a lifetime qualification will be required to qualify at regional qualification shows in the usual way to enter The Crabbet Championships in future years.
- Exhibitors entering The Crabbet Organisation National Championships classes (including yearlings) must enter on the Arab Horse Society National Show Schedule entry form. Your horse (except yearlings) must have qualified before entry. If your horse qualifies close to the date of the Championships please contact The Arab Horse Society National Show Secretary as late entries may be accepted up until the end of June.
- Exhibitors entering the championships must be members of The Crabbet Organisation before the horse goes in the ring. For membership please contact Rachael Claridge at rjclaridge@yahoo.co.uk.
